

Building Bridges through Leadership Training

Khaled Saifullah, LLB Hons (Dhaka); MSt (Oxford)
Deputy Manager, Curriculum Development
Bangladesh Youth Leadership Center

Three Challenges and Our Approach

- Lack of interaction between across the divides
- Lack of critical thinking skills
- Lack of opportunities to channel positive energy

Our Intervention

- Leadership training
  - Large class discussion using Socratic and Case-in-point method
  - Small group case consultation
  - Communication workshop
- Community service
  - Project designing and implementation workshop
  - Fundraising workshop

Impact of the program

- Capacity development
- Addressing problems in the society

Best practices

- Building bridges across the divides – works as a melting pot, fosters pluralism, helps understand the true value of inclusiveness
- Creating diagnostic mindset
- Using Case-in-point to turn classroom into a leadership laboratory
- Reflection as a tool to cultivate deeper learning
- Keeping low students and teacher ratio to give the participants personalized feedback
